THE SAD STORY IT TOLD.

Cuzzi's First Glance in a Looking Glass in Fifteen Years.

Shortly after Cuzzi's rescue by General Kitchener, when the latter entered Omdurman, the long suffering man said: "During my 15 years' imprisonment I never saw a mirror, and gradually all interest in my personal appearance faded completely away. When it became sure that an expedition was on its way to Omdurman, I began to live again. When at last the cannon began to thunder and the wild cries of the battle penetrated the city, I laid my sword ready, determined, should this last hope be destroyed, to put an end to my life. When finally the noise of the cannon ceased and the victor Kitchener stood before me, congratulating me on my release, I thought I should suffocate with emotion.

"The next day I made my toilet in an officer's tent and held in my hand the first looking glass I had seen for 15 years. I looked curiously at my reflection in it and started back. I had gored out into the world a young, active strong man, and the image which now stared at me was that of a sick, hollow eyed, wrinkled, broken man. Never did all that I had suffered enter my mind with such strength as at this moment, and I wept, wept like a child—the first tears in 15 years!

"The day after I was made a prisoner I saw my wife die, but my grief was too great for the relief of tears. My child was torn from me and died of starvation far away, and I could not weep! I suffered deprivations and ill treatment without a sign of weakness, but now, before this small looking glass, I was overwhelmed. The pain of all that I had lost seemed concentrated in the grief stricken features reflected in the mirror. At one glance I saw the story of my sufferings."

Letter From the West.

To the editors of the REPUBLICAN:—We were at Mulvane, Kan., when you last heard from us. From there we went to Coldwater, Kan. Saw some very fine country and many curiosities on the road. One thing in particular is a sinking of the ground; the brakeman and conductor each told us they had recently unloaded 28 cars of dirt at this one point and it is sinking still. The fence is completely sunken and the earth is cracked along the track for several yards. The railroad track is lower there and sometimes passengers get out and walk over.

Coldwater is a little town of about 400 inhabitants and lots of business transacted there, many ranchmen being near. Many new buildings are going up. They have a fine school building for a country town. The court house is a good sized building and is very neat. We visited one ranch about one mile from town of 500 cattle and the same firm had 8,000 head in another herd some ten miles from town. The people there don't call 15 or 20 miles any distance to drive. The little ponies they use there are something worth driving.

The people are so sociable and clever they make you feel like you are at home right away, and are all good livers. We left Coldwater last Thursday and came back by the way of Wichita. Saw quite a good deal of that city. Wichita is a great business center, has one of the finest city buildings and postoffice and several institutions and some of the finest residences. While there we met some good old Hoosier people.

Our next stop was at Kansas City, and talk about your dirty cities! Kansas City isn't one of them I'll give it up. While waiting for our train to leave we had the pleasure of seeing an old Indian; had his hair braided, feathers in his cow-boy hat, wore moccasins and a blue suit of clothes. He was a cross looking old customer. Suppose he was going to Oklahoma Ter. to their war dance. We were next at Jefferson City. I must tell you of Emancipation Day at Sedalia, Mo. Of all the times that was one of them. Every colored fellow had his girl. There were 2 coaches full on our train and such a time as they had. At Jefferson City we saw the workhouse or reformatory.

We arrived in St. Louis at 6:15 and left 8:21 for Rockbridge, Ill. Arrived here at 10:30. Our cousin met us and we are getting fat and having a good time. They have had lots of rain recently.

Yours Truly,
JAS. BLAIR.

From an Old Soldier

Knox, Ind., Jan. 14, 1897,
Gents:—I have every confidence in recommending your Syrup of Pepsin. I am 72 years of age and am broken down, the trouble having been brought on by my experience in the war. Your medicine has done me more good than a hundred doctors and I am just about well of stomach troubles.

Yours Truly,
JEFFERSON WILHELM.
